For Release 7th March, 2013

SOS Marine`s new distributor in the US

SOS Marine, an Australian manufacturer of marine safety equipment, has appointed Just Marine as its dedicated distributor for the US.

Just Marine is owned and operated by Phil Thompson, an Australian living in L.A. He has recently sold his very successful golf course company and is well known on the waterfront, having been a skipper of 3 Australian America`s Cup campaigns.

Headquartered in California, Just Marine will be looking after the SOS Dan Buoy and other SOS Marine`s products including their 2 Person Life Raft. The SOS Dan Buoy is a compact inflatable buoy that can be thrown in the water as a rescue device. SOS Marine also manufactures the Sea Scoopa which is a rescue and recovery product for man overboard.

SOS Marine is a manufacturer of maritime safety and rescue equipment providing specialized lifejackets and man-overboard equipment for naval forces, maritime law enforcements agencies and a range of marine industry professionals, as well as the leisure industry requirements.

SOS Marine supplies safety equipment to 12 International Defence forces world-wide.
